How to get to the Radboud University?

Train

Trains call at Nijmegen Central train station and Nijmegen Heyendaal train station. Heyendaal train station is within walking distance of the university.

Bus

Direct busses run every five minutes during rush hour from Nijmegen Central train station to Radboud University. Bus 10 (Heyendaal Shuttle) calls at all bus stops. An OV chip card top-up machine is found near the main entrance of the University Library. Plan your journey via www.ns.nl or www.9292.nl (or use the corresponding phone apps).

Bicycle

Radboud University has different indoor and outdoor bicycle parking facilities. These facilities are found in or near each building on campus.

Car

Radboud University is indicated on the ANWB road signs on all access roads in Nijmegen.

Parking

Paid parking is available from Monday to Friday (except on official holidays) from 7.00 to 18.00. Parking up to a half hour is free. You can charge your electric car at indoor parking Grotius, Gymnasium and Huygens-gebouw and parking Berchmanium.

Opening hours and accessibility

Radboud University does not have uniform opening hours across the campus; they vary per building. Visit the website www.ru.nl/english for the most current information.
